INVESTMENT BANKING INTERN (PART TIME- NON PAID) – JOB DESCRIPTION

Boston National Capital Partners (BNCP) is a specialty investment banking firm focused on providing debt and capital raising, project financing, mergers and acquisitions, and strategic advisory services to domestic and international early-stage and middle market companies.

BNCP serves companies primarily in the energy, industrial, consumer, healthcare, and technology sectors. We specialize in cross-border assignments with emphasis on the US, India, Middle East and Latin American markets. BNCP's principals are MIT-Sloan graduates with more than 40 years of combined experience and have participated in private placement, divestiture, M&A, and project financing transactions aggregating US $2.8 billion.

BNCP's extensive banking experience combined with access to a diverse network of private equity / venture capital firms, commercial and investment banks, and private investors, is what permits us to identify, structure and execute large investment transactions for clients both in the US and overseas. From an inverted staffing model to a stream-lined management approach, everything at BNCP is designed to facilitate an aggressive 5 year growth plan and aimed at making BNCP a preeminent cross-border investment banking firm.

BNCP currently seeks candidates to fill investment banking internship positions at our Wellesley headquarters. Talented Investment Banking Intern candidates can come from a variety of backgrounds. The position requires a six month part-time, unpaid commitment and carries the possibility of future permanent employment and promotion to Associate. Award of academic credits can be arranged with the undergraduate candidate's home institution.

Intern Duties:

- Researching and evaluating potential investment opportunities in the United States for foreign investor groups.
- Conducting due diligence and preparing private placement documentation for acquisition, divestiture and capital-raising projects.
- Researching key industry trends and project financing opportunities in the Indian and Latin American markets.

Qualifications in the Investment Banking Interns we are looking for include:

- Outstanding academic and extracurricular achievement
- Strong desire to develop a career in the investment banking business
- Should possess excellent analytical skills, strong work ethic, and great attention to detail
- Great communication skills and the desire to work in a team environment
- Strong quantitative, analytical and computer skills (including intensive Excel based modeling)
- High level of motivation, dependability, intelligence and a team player
- The motivation to excel and the ability to deliver outstanding results in a fast paced/non-stop unstructured environment
- Ability to analyze financial statements and perform business valuation analyses
